Open Well Steam Tables
Electric - Hot Food, Stationary

Description

Adcraft's new open well steam tables are constructed of stainless steel with galvanized steel wells and adjustable legs. Available in three popular sizes; 2, 3 and 4 bay, these units are built to handle the toughest of kitchen environments. Each steam table features individually controlled 750W heating elements with their own dedicated control switch. The 8" deep wells are designed to fit full size spillage pans (not included). An adjustable stainless steel undershelf allows for storage. Each size comes with a 8" x 1/2" polycarbonate cutting board that runs the whole width of the unit and is removable for easy cleaning. All units come with Adcraft's 1 year limited warranty.
